Forming Questions with Auxiliary Verbs

What is a questions? It is an act of asking an utterance which serves as a request for information. It ends with a question mark.

We have many types of questions but today our focus is Yes or No questions

Yes or No questions are sometimes called closed questions because there are only two possible responses: Yes or No. When forming a Yes / No question, it must include one of these verbs: BE, DO, HAVE. It is impossible to ask a Yes / No question without one of these verbs.
