

Changing direction

When you are going one way and then you turn to go a different way you change direction.

Adjo is being pulled along.

Q. What is going to happen?

Adjo and his friend will crash into the gate unless they can stop or turn.

The children are playing a running game. They have to change direction when someone says 'turn'.

This boat has pushed the water to make it turn.

Q. How can they make the wheelchairs change direction?

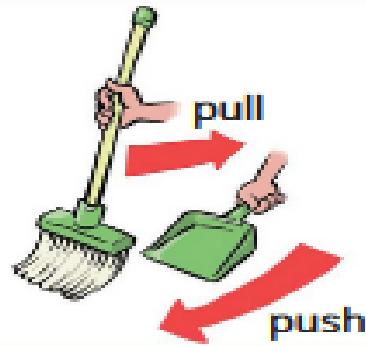

By using a large push on one wheel and a small push on the other.

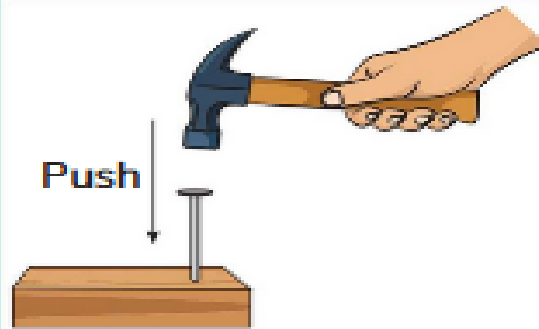

Paco is a school caretaker.

Q. How does he use forces to look after the school ?

He uses forces to sweep.

He uses forces to mend things.

He uses forces to move things.

