

Fourth Grade

Unit 6

Present Simple Tense

Hi, my name is Tim, I love grammar so much and I will be your little guest today.

Hello, buddies I'm Rick. I don't know the difference between the singular verbs 's' and the plural nouns 's'.

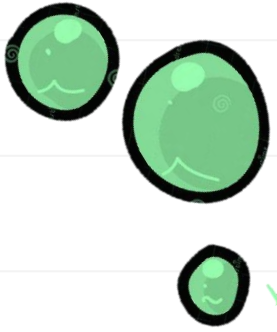

Good morning 4th graders, my name is Taylor. I find it hard to use the present simple. I'll join you today to learn with you.

Hey, I'm Bri. My parents say that I'm too genius for a 7-year-old kid, so they sent me here today to learn about the present simple.

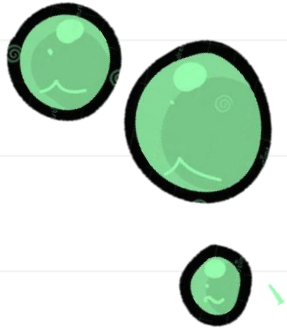

What is a verb?

A verb is a word used to describe an action or something we do.

Examples: be, beat, become, begin, build, cast, catch, choose, come, dig, do, dream, drive, fall, feel, fight, get, give, go, have, hear, hide, keep, know, lay, make, pay, put, talk, teach, read, swim, stand...etc.

What is the Present
Simple Tense?

- ✓ The Present Simple Tense is the tense that is used to refer to events, actions, and conditions that are happening all the time, or exist now.
- ✓ In other words, we use the Present Simple Tense to talk about states, routines and habits.

Examples:

- ✓ He goes to school every morning.
- ✓ We understand English.
- ✓ Kids on the beach mix sand and water.
- ✓ He tries very hard to pass the test.
- ✓ She enjoys playing the piano.

How to form the Present Simple Tense?

✓ RULE 1:

Subject + verb + s + object

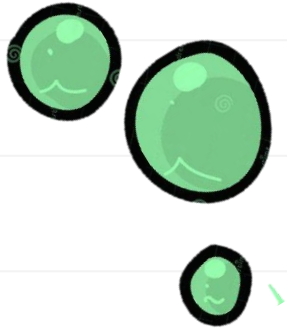

We use the present simple in this form when we have a singular subject.

Ex: Amy likes to draw.

He She
It

+ verb + s + object

How to form the Present Simple Tense?

✓ RULE 2:

Subject + verb + object

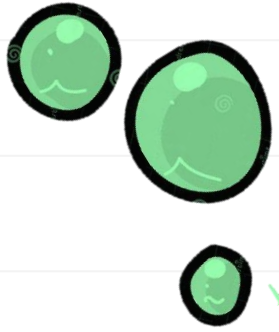

We use the present simple in this form when we have a plural subject.

Ex: Toni and Raya play basketball every Friday.

I
You
We They

+ verb + object

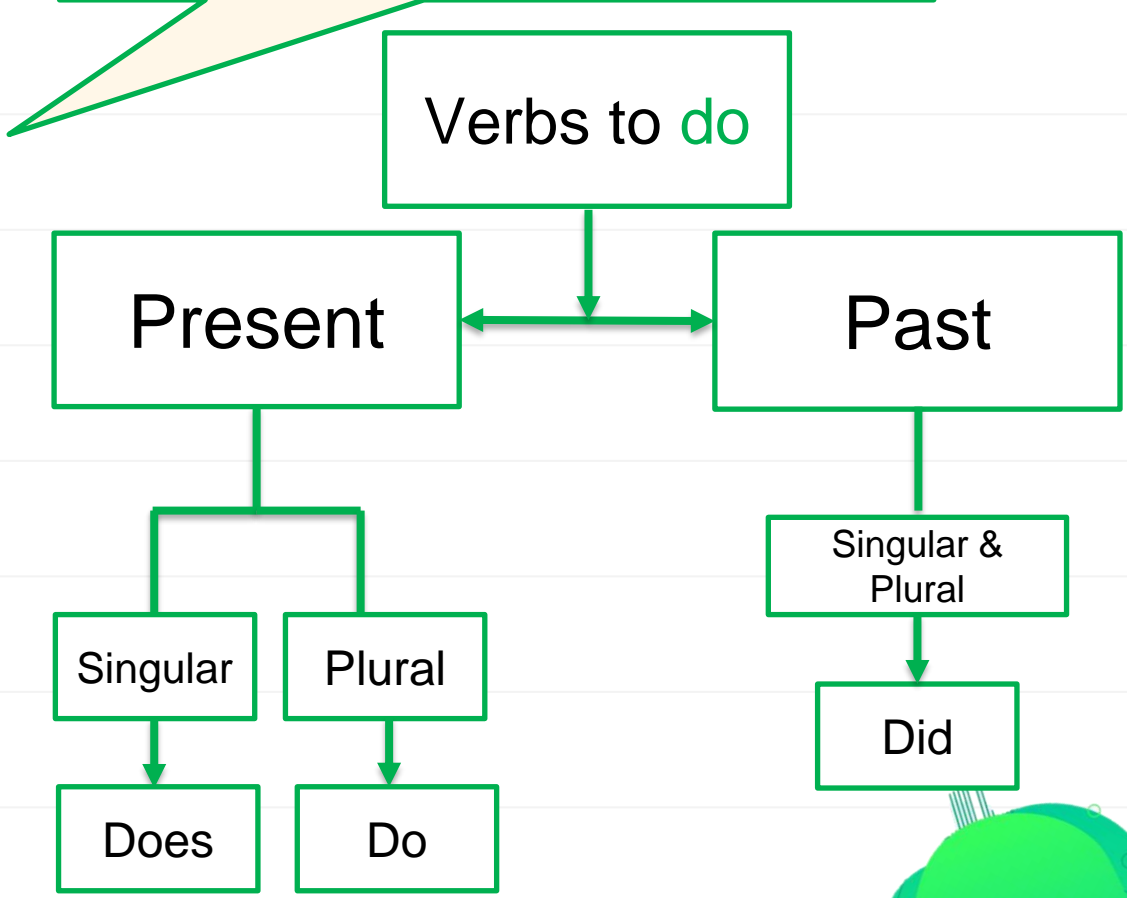

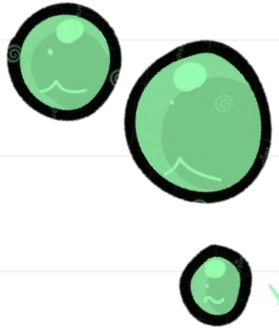

The negative form of the Present Simple Tense

It's finally my turn to tell you how to form the negative form.

✓ In order to form the negative form of the Present Simple Tense, we need to remember the verbs to do family:

The negative form of the Present
Simple Tense

We use the verbs to do family in forming the negative of the Present Simple:

Ex:

Hind doesn't eat Sushi

My friends don't like sports.

✓ Rule:

Subject + do/does + not + verb + object

Forming questions in the Present Simple Tense

I know one thing or two about this. Let me help.

For questions, we need to use the verbs to do again.

Let's take a look at this example and try to find out the formation:

Do you know how to bake a pie?

We switch the subject and verb to do and we end the question with a question mark (?)

✓ Rule:

Do/does + subject + verb + continuation of the sentence + ?

