

GROWING

* All animals have babies.

The babies are called the animals'
young.

Animals and their babies may live in the ZOO

The young change as they grow older. This is called growth.

Fully grown animals are called adults.

The young of many animals look similar to the adults. .

Some baby animals are called cubs.

- Bear cub.

lion cub

The young elephant is called a calf.

The young penguin is called a chick.

- When it gets older it will grow different colored feathers.

Parrot chick

chicken chick.

All humans have babies

The picture show how humans change as they grow older.

5 STAGES OF HUMAN GROWTH

Baby

Toddler

Child

Teenager

Adult

Old

Questions p.99

- How do humans change as they grow?

Humans get bigger, they grow adult teeth,
their hair grows and they learn many things.

Questions p. 100

Q.1 The calf looks very similar to the adult elephant. How is it different?

- The calf is smaller.

• Q.2 The chick looks very different from the adults. How is it similar?

- It has eyes, a beak and feathers.